

Young Artist Awards Summer Programs

SPEND YOUR SUMMER MAKING ART OR WRITING

Have you ever thought of taking classes in the summer to help develop your creative skills? The summer months are a perfect time to get advanced instruction in the arts. These programs introduce new art forms, improve skills, and expand portfolios. The Alliance encourages teenagers to enroll in these summer programs in preparation for The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards of 2011. For more information about attending any of the summer intensives listed here, please contact the program directly.

The Alliance for Young Artists & Writers is pleased to present the Young Artist Awards, sponsored by the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation. The Young Artist Awards provides 40 scholarships (up to $2,500 each) for students to attend summer art and writing intensives. Students must have earned a Gold Key in the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards of 2010 to be eligible. Here is a list of possible summer programs for students to consider. To apply for a Young Artist Award, contact youngartists@artandwriting.org or call (212) 343-7613. Download the application form at www.artandwriting.org.
