

Announcing the National Medalists from the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards of 2015*!

The following list is sorted by the student's home state and then by last name. The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards commends all students who had the courage and motivation to send their work to the Awards for review by artistic and literary professionals.

* Please note: The National Medalist for the Duck Tape Brand Award will be announced at a later date.

National Medalists (Students & Educators): Please log into your accounts for important information on how to accept your Scholastic Art & Writing Awards National Medal and participate in the 2015 National Events in New York City from June 10-12.

Important Note for National Medalist Educators: If one of your students is a National Medalist but you do not own a Scholastic Awards account or you do not see any information concerning National Events when you are logged in, please email nationalawards@artandwriting.org as soon as possible. Please be sure to include the title and work id number of one of the National Medalist works as listed on this document in your email.

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards of 2016 will open on Wednesday, September 16, 2015.
