

2019 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards

New York Life Award

About this Special Achievement Award:

The New York Life Award, underwritten by the New York Life Foundation, elevates the voice of bereaved teens and creates healing conversations around grief. It provides six students whose works explore personal grief, loss, and bereavement with $1,000 scholarships.

What is bereavement?

Bereavement is a state that occurs after a loved one dies. Grief is the feeling and reaction associated with the loss. Grief can be a difficult journey, but a creative outlet provides an opportunity to express yourself and be heard.

About the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards:

For nearly a century, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards have recognized the vision, ingenuity, and talent of our country's youth. Administered by the Alliance for Young Artist & Writers, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, the Awards reach out to hundreds of thousands of students in grades 7–12 (ages 13 and up) and provide them with opportunities for recognition, exhibition, publication, and scholarships.

About Our Partner:

The New York Life Foundation supports programs that benefit young people, particularly in the areas of educational enhancement and childhood bereavement, and runs the Volunteers for Good program for New York Life employees, agents, and retirees. newyorklifefoundation.org
