

Civic Expression Award

Are you a creative teen in grades 7–12?

Does your work encourage engagement on political or social issues?

The Civic Expression Award provides scholarships to students whose creative works best promote responsible participation in civic life.

National Award: $1,000

Who: All students in grades 7–12 (ages 13 and up) are eligible to participate.

What: This award is part of the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, the nation's longest-running and most prestigious recognition program for creative teens. The Awards encourage, publish, and grant scholarships to creative teens.

Why: Your voice can shape public understanding of political or social issues, inspiring others to act and build toward a better future together.

If you create any type of visual art or writing, we have a category for your submission!

Submissions open on September 12, 2019.
Regional deadlines vary, and can be as early as December 1, 2019.
